PALISADES CENTER'S AUTOBAHN INDOOR SPEEDWAY CELEBRATES INTERNATIONAL GO KART WEEK

From September 20-26, Time Will Fly As You're Having So Much Fun

West Nyack, NY (September 2020): Autobahn Indoor Speedway & Events, located on level two at Palisades Center, is celebrating International Go Kart Week from Sunday, September 20-Saturday, September 26. The week will offer the biggest promotions of the year, including free race clinics, all-you-can race, and other daily specials.

"International Go Kart Week provides us the opportunity to make indoor, e-karting more accessible than ever. These high-tech, speedy karts are cleaner, smoother, and faster accelerating than the gas karts most people think of," said Donald Wagner, Director of Operations for Autobahn. "It's also a time to see just how good of a driver you are with our free clinics and the chance to race against the best. If you don't hurry, though, you might miss it because this week, appropriately, goes by extra fast."

"Go Kart Week is celebrated all over the world, and we're fortunate enough to be able to experience it in our own backyard," said Donald Franchino, Clarkstown Councilman. "During this difficult period, the week-long Autobahn celebration is a way for people to unwind, have fun and interact with loved ones."

"Autobahn's International Go Kart Week is the perfect time to test your racing skills against family or friends," said Darrin Houseman, General Manager of Palisades Center. "It's also a time to just have some fun and make great memories."

Children eight years old and over 48 inches in height and adults of all ages are welcome to participate. There will also be special guests, including some of the top indoor go kart racers in the country.
